FOREWORD

A picture is worth 1000 words, 1000 words are worth 1000 memories.

WITH GREAT PRIDE we present the 1959 edition of SHALER-ESQUE, in whose pages we have turned events into memories. Here we give the Shaler year 1958-59 as we lived it; and the many things we have done, whether academic, athletic, or social, will be recalled both by picture and by word. The picture of our school on the first page shows what a passer-by might see of Shaler; but the pages inside show the Shaler her students and faculty see. For it is the teachers, students, and parents joining and working together who make Shaler what it is, who give Shaler a distinctive personality.

We present to you, therefore, all the fun, work, and successes of which we have been a part. We have captured every phase of school life in these pages so that nothing we have done this year will be lost from memory.

FOREIGN COUNTRIES HOMECOMING THEME

Shaler's second annual homecoming was held on October 12. The theme was "Foreign Countries." Elizabeth-Louise and her friends presented floats, each representing a foreign country, paraded around the field. The climax of the evening was the crowning of the 1958 Homecoming Queen, Anne-Elisabeth Krogstad.

Among the many and varied activities at Shaler the dances are one of the most popular. There are dances after almost every sport contest at Shaler. Climaxing the football season, a dance is held in which the Football King and Queen are crowned. Eileen Heller and David Ruff represented the Shaler students' interest in the Football King and Queen. Eileen is the head cheerleader and Dave is a three-letter man. Also during the year, special dances are held such as the Heart Hop, sponsored by Scoop. The king and queen at this dance are seniors picked by the drawing of hearts. The lucky winners for 1959 were Peggy Cerninara and Ed Flower. Student Council's Spring Frolic, always a popular dance, is one of the post-Easter festivities.

"HARVEY" CHARMS

This year's senior class play was the gay comedy, "Harvey." The title character, a huge white rabbit, is invisible to everyone except Elwood P. Dowd. Veta Louise tries in vain to commit her lovable brother, Elwood, to Dr. Chumley's Rest Home. But, to everyone's surprise, Veta is put in instead of Elwood. After a confusing ordeal, Veta decides that she loves Elwood and Harvey and will put up with them in her house.

STUDENT COUNCIL ENCOURAGED WINTER

Shaler's Student Council is a combination of effort and organization for the benefit of both. All activities at Shaler this year were promoted or approved by Student Council. This year Student Council began by giving all the new women teachers received a corsage to welcome them to Shaler. The highlight of the year was the Winter Carnival. The environment at Shaler was very different from the surroundings at her home in Norway.

To promote more Christmas spirit, Student Council sponsored a Christmas contest. Unique and attractive decorations were created by the various homeroom members. The Winter Carnival was the two most successful events of the year. The money received from the Winter Carnival will help finance next year's exchange student.

Student Council also had the opportunity to represent Shaler on the WIIC Teen Club. Judy Kay informed the viewers of our television appearance was worthwhile.

Shaler's Student Council of 1958-1959 did a fine job of representing all students of Shaler. Their efforts were a great help of furthering school spirit.

Members of Commercial Club

Modern Language Club is a new activity at Shaler this year. It is open to all students who maintain a B average or better in their second year of Spanish, French or Latin. It takes part in school activities and sponsors a dance.

To be considered eligible for membership in the National Honor Society, students must have an average of B or better. This society is interested in embodying the four basic ideals initiated in the corners of the keystone, the insignia of the society. These ideals are character, leadership, service, and scholarship.

The membership of the Commercial Club consists of eleventh and twelfth grade students in the Commercial department who have attained high scholastic standing.

Among their projects this year are the selling of United States Savings Stamps and Sheaffer's Cartridge Pens.

Varsity Club consists of senior high boys who have earned a varsity athletic letter. Although the main purpose is to provide recognition to those boys, the club members also assist in the intramural program.

Leaders' Club is composed of junior and senior girls who have an average of B or better in gym and who show outstanding characteristics of leadership. This club was organized to promote proficiency and leadership in athletics. For its social activity, the junior Leaders each year entertain the senior members with dinner and an entertainment which includes skits, games, and an old-fashioned songfest.

Science Club is a group of senior high boys who are interested in science. These boys perform student demonstrations and make reports to their science classes on the field of science. This year they visited Shippingport Atomic Reactor as a field trip.

Library Club is available to any student who enjoys working in the library. These students help keep the books in order and also help check books out. The members of the club and Miss Laurick meet once a month to discuss new books.

The school year of 1958-1959 marked the revival of the Shaler Key Club. Sponsored by the Kiwanis Club International, Key Club is a service organization designed to be an aid to the school and the community. The club has a membership of thirty boys and is sponsored at Shaler by Mr. Dixon. In future years Key Club hopes to build a very active organization which will provide Shaler with a source of effective leadership in the various fund drives and campaigns.

SHALERESQUE HOPES TO REPEAT TRIUMPH

and Joanne find that accom

We were all understandably proud when the 1958 SHALERESQUE received the Columbia University Scholastic medalist rating. Each year the award is given on the basis of standards established by Columbia University Scholastic Press. To follow an award winning year book is a difficult and challenging assignment to any staff. The staff of this year's book worked very hard to meet in every respect the standards which have been set and to make this year's annual deserving of commendation in keeping with the example set by last year's staff.

For the first time, this year's SHALERESQUE includes a four color picture page. The composition of the book is centered entirely around the artistic aspect. This is represented in the graceful diamonds and the blue coloring. Thus, we see our school through an artist's eye.

Due to the fact that there was a small SHALERESQUE staff this year, each member learned more about writing a yearbook. They each had a chance to help the photographer, to mount pictures, to work on the dummy, and to do the other jobs necessary to produce a yearbook.

Scoop, which is Shaler's bi-weekly newspaper has improved greatly this last year. The senior high Scoop was increased from four to six pages thus increasing the amount of school news and school personalities. It was put on a newspaper basis by organizing page editors and by using subheadings for the larger stories. The staff consists of senior high school students who through their creative writing, cover the school news. The staff also sponsored the annual Heart Hop with the help of Miss Bechtel. Holly Best is editor and Miss Bechtel as sponsor supervised the planning and publication of Scoop and its activities. This year's staff has raised Scoop's journalistic standards also. They learned the journalistic style of writing and put it to use in their reporting. According to newspaper technique, each reporter was given a definite number of words to write on a particular subject, thus insuring better coverage.

Members of Scoop carefully check over the accuracy of the newspaper for things to watch in later issue.

WINTER CARNIVAL HIGHLIGHTS YEAR

The third annual Winter Carnival, held on February 27, was one of the many activities sponsored by the 1958-59 Student Council. All the students in the various clubs and organizations worked hard to make this year's carnival the best ever. The booths were colorfully and attractively decorated. There were all types of entertainment at the various booths. Modern Language Club sold flowers, the Majorettes had a weight-guessing contest, Future Nurses sponsored the Voo-Doo dart game, and Leader's Club presented the very popular Dunk-a-Dame. These are just a few of the many entertaining booths which were sponsored at the Winter Carnival this year. The gym was opened throughout the evening for dancing. The stage show, held in the auditorium at 10 o'clock, played to an over-capacity crowd. Personalities such as Tim Kirby and Bobby Vinton performed and Shaler's own Swing Band gave one of its best performances to make the 1959 Winter Carnival successful.

BAND DISPLAYS PEP AND SKILL TO

The Shaler High Band under the direction of Mr. Myers performed many clever and original shows during the 1958-1959 school season. Before presenting these however, the band had a work-out at Band Camp in August of 1958. Among the first presentations were those at the half time of most football games, where the band, together with the majorettes and drum majors displayed its talent. These shows also called for band practice not only during school but also after school. In addition to football games, the band participated in parades held in the area and also in band festivals at Richland and Penn Hills.

When football season ended the Concert Band appeared on the Shaler scene. Along with serious music, this band performs many popular pieces and presents on annual concert in May.

Band members help each other prepare for the inspection which is held before each football game.

OPERETTA YEAR'S

The music department had a very successful year under the new director, Mr. Keister. The first performance was the Thanksgiving assembly featuring the Ninth Grade Choir, Sophomore Choir, and Chapel Choir. During the Christmas season, the Sophomore and Chapel Choir presented the annual Christmas pageant for the public and the student body. Also during the holiday season, the Chapel Choir visited the six grade schools in the township and presented a program of Christmas music. In March, the senior high school choirs performed an Easter assembly for the junior and senior high schools in separate programs.

The music department had two major achievements this year. The first was the operetta, The Fortune Teller, performed for the public on April 3. The spring concert presented on May 5, was dedicated to Mr. Bell, our music director for twenty years who died on March 5. The proceeds from this program went toward a memorial to be established in his honor.

Many new activities were organized in the Chapel Choir this year. The Swing Band Group, which sang with the Swing Band, and the Ensemble, a group of twenty students which sang for various organizations, were started. Other organizations which were continued were the Senior Girls Trio, Junior Girls' Trio, and the Boys' Octet.

With the singing at Baccalaureate, Chapel Choir ended another enjoyable and successful year of participation in the varied activity program of Shaler.

The Shaler cheerleaders made themselves known this year by successfully leading the spectators to the different athletic programs. The Shaler Huskies on to victory! The Pep Club last August provided the intensive training program for these girls to get them in shape. Here, too, they worked out new cheers and routines.

The varsity cheerleaders, captained by Eileen Heller, and the junior varsity cheerleaders, headed by Betty Milbert, led the cheers at the football and basketball games. The junior varsity cheerleaders joined the Pep Club and the other spectators in cheering the Huskies.

Shaler's first touchdown was scored by Ruff in the first half on a fifteen yard touchdown dash. Later Noullet plunged over from the five yard line for Shaler's second score. Ruff scored a touchdown again in the third quarter. Ashton and Eisenhower accounted for the final touchdown, enabling Shaler to win their final game of the season.

Paul Wagner was awarded recognition as the most valuable player on the Herald All-Star Team while Bill Ritter and Henry Ball both made the second team of the Herald All-Stars.

MUSKEY HOUNDS HITS

The 1958-1959 basketball season opened with eleven returning lettermen, but it closed with only two outstanding and valuable players remaining. These were Jim Smith and Ed Tessmer, who scored 252 and 190 points, respectively. These two players represented Shaler in the Herald 18 game. Ed Tessmer had the highest scoring game for the year with 27 points in the 18 game. Dick Bailey was second with 25 points in the North All game. These two players were the only lettermen on the team. The team came on good in the second half of the game. The lettermen were Jim Smith, Ed Tessmer, Dick Bailey, and Ruff, and junior Bob Mullens, who was the only returning letterman next year. The team played many thrilling games. One outstanding game was played with Coraopolis. Shaler came behind 8 points in the fourth quarter to beat Coraopolis by 2 points. This was the only game in which Shaler won as the home team. As far as the Shaler team was concerned, the Shaler team was the best team in the area.

STEALING SECOND IN CHRISTMAS TOURNAMENT

A team of 10 players from St. Albans High School defeated the St. Albans team in the 1999-2000 Christmas Tournament. The team, coached by Mike Miller, won the tournament by defeating the St. Albans team in the final game. The team's record for the season was 10-1, and they finished as the state champion. The team's success was due to their strong defense and their ability to steal the ball. The team's captain, Mike Miller, was named the Most Valuable Player of the tournament.

The Christmas Tournament was held at the St. Albans High School gymnasium. The tournament was a three-day event, with games taking place on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The St. Albans team was one of the top teams in the state, and they were expected to win the tournament. However, they were defeated by the St. Albans team in the final game. The St. Albans team's victory was a surprise, as they were not considered one of the top teams in the state. The St. Albans team's success was a testament to their hard work and dedication to the sport.

SHALER'S FIFTY-NINE SEND THIRTY-FOUR

Kopninsky breaks his man down

For the first time in the history of Shaler the wrestling coaches organized a group of junior high boys to teach them many fundamental wrestling. The coaches expect this to bring them many experienced boys for next season. Wrestling, unlike some sports, requires much training in fundamentals before a boy is even ready to try his skill.

Again this year, Shaler played in the WPIA Section I Tournament. Other schools participating included North Allegheny, Mt. Lebanon, Carnegie West View, West Allegheny, Kittanning, and New Castle. Jim Rihn, Bob Kopninsky, and John Ashbaugh all won this tournament and went to Washington, Pennsylvania, on March 14 to wrestle in the PIAA Southwest Region Tournament.

Boys receiving letters this year were Carl Shafer, Jim Rihn, Bill Moore, Skip Ashton, Bill

TRACKERS OFF TO WINNING SEASON

The Huskies' first meet of the season took place on March 21, at Schoonmaker Hall in South Park. Grant Genter placed in the low hurdles and Shaler's mile relay team of Succop, Weitzel, Phelan, and Kuzniewski placed third out of the nineteen schools competing. This preview of the season and the fine efforts shown in practice gave head coach Mr. Charles Lodge and the entire team an optimistic outlook on the track season.

The Shaler Cross Country team, coached this year by Mr. William Keister, ended the season with a 3 won and 5 lost record

However, these figures do not tell the whole story of the season. There were outstanding performances by seniors Jay Weitzel, who placed in all the meets and placed first in 4 meets; Pat Phelan who placed in 6 of the 8 meets; and Dick Bailey who came out for the team in his senior year and helped the team by placing in 5 meets. Two juniors who came through with a good effort this year were Domenic Di Nardo, who placed in 3 meets and Terry Molnar who placed in 4 meets

in early practice

The coming of spring marks the arrival of one of Shaler's most successful sports—baseball. Although most of the 1958 team has graduated Coach Martin is looking forward to a good season. Last year Shaler narrowly missed winning the section title, losing it to North Hills. This year, with the three returning lettermen, Dave Ruff, Jim Smith, and Bob Mullens, Mr. Martin has molded together many newcomers into a well-balanced unit. Shaler is again competing in a rough section composed of North Hills, North Allegheny, Richland, and Etna. Only time will tell the success that Shaler will have.

WPLAL CHAMPIONSHIP

The 1959 rifle team had a very successful season. The team lost only one match and therefore took the Section 2 championship. Under the leadership of Coach William Kapphan, the team placed second in WPLAL, close on the heels of first place Mt. Lebanon. This is the first time a Shaler rifle team competed for the WPLAL championship since 1947.

In the regular season matches the two Shaler high scorers were Jo Politylo and John Mason. For their excellence they were honored at the All-Star Match at Munhall High School on April 16 where both Jo and John were awarded medals. Shaler letters were awarded to seven seniors, three juniors, and two sophomores for participation during the regular rifle season.

CLASSES

CLASS

1959

The graduating class of 1959 is composed of many outstanding persons in various fields. Musicians, athletes, artists, leaders and followers are all represented in this year's senior class. These talents and skills have been developed during the four years of high school. In ninth grade the members of our class chose between the academic program and the commercial plan. The homerooms consisted of either all commercial or all academic students; thus we became acquainted with students of our own interests. However, this system changed as we grew older. In tenth grade we met new students in each different class. As seniors, almost everyone knows all the members of our class.

We have been a part of many activities and learned to work and have fun with one another. The four years here at Shaler have been challenging and fun, but the most important year for most of us has been our senior year. Who can ever forget our senior class trip, the winter carnivals, the class plays, the G.A.A. games, Chapel Choir, or the football and basketball games. In years before 1959 we were followers, but this year we ourselves, were the planners and leaders.

Miss Bechtel and the prom committee go over plans for the May 22nd dance at Country Club. John Nickum and [unclear] were co-chairmen.

The senior invitations for commencement and the banquet were selected by a committee of representatives from each senior homeroom.

Since Shaler is so crowded, temporary classrooms have been set up in Braun, Friday Street, and Bauerstown grade schools. The students are transported by bus to Shaler Junior High for their classes in shop and home economics. These students are anxiously awaiting the opening of the new junior high building on Scott Avenue. There are five sections of seventh grade students here at Shaler. The presidents of these sections are: Trowbridge, Handrahan; Zoerh, Russell, Rhodes.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING SCOTT AVENUE

Mr. R. C. Rogers, supervising principal, plays a major part in the education of Shaler Township students.

Shaler Township's School Board is composed of men and women elected by the township residents. These men and women study the problems of education and strive toward promoting the best possible education for the youth of Shaler Township. The School Board is responsible for the hiring of faculty members, the educational facilities in the various township schools, and the building of any new schools that may be needed in the community. Just now the attention of the School Board is focused on the new junior high school on Scott Avenue which will be ready for classes in September of this year. The principal of the new school will be Samuel Boyer and Vaughn Campbell will be the vice-principal. The Scott Avenue Junior High School, which will house the seventh and eighth grades, with its modern building and facilities will be a valuable addition to the township.

Mr. Hensch, principal of Shaler High School, is responsible for the instruction and progress of the students.

grade schools, the new junior high, and the high school. Mr. Rogers, on the advice and with the consent of the School Board, makes the important decisions and formulates the over-all policies for Shaler's schools.

In the monthly meetings held at the Jeffery School, the School Board must formulate and then implement the policies under which the schools of the township will function. This is not something that can be dismissed lightly or with the idea of wait-and-see what-happens. Plans must be made for several years in advance since schools can not be built in just a few months. Thus census figures must be kept accurately so that the Board knows well in advance where a school will be needed and on what grade level. It is the Board's duty, also, to provide the money to build, equip, and maintain the schools. Shaler's School Board then, represents citizenship of the highest order.

LESSON LEARNED FOR SEPTEMBER OPENING

The Administration of Shaler High School has many duties to perform in order to keep the high school functioning smoothly. Our principal, Harold E. Hensch, is in charge of the instruction, discipline, and progress of all Shaler students. Working with Mr. Hensch are Samuel Boyer, vice-principal, and Edward Winkler, activities director. Mr. Boyer takes care of the guidance program, the distribution of books and supplies, and the problems arising in connection with the attendance of the students. Mr. Winkler handles the activities program which includes sports contests and student assemblies. Our administration works for the welfare and advancement of the student body of Shaler High School.

Mr. R. C. Rogers, Shaler's supervising principal, is the member of the administration directly in charge of all the township schools. These schools now include six

ENGLISH

Lesson in Mrs. Cord's

English is a required subject in both the junior and senior high schools. The year's work is divided between grammar and literature. The basic rules of grammar are reviewed each year and then are put to use in themes, essays, and book reports. Juniors and seniors use the knowledge they have gained in composition for the preparation of term papers which require much research.

Seniors have a choice of three different English courses; commercial students can select either business or general English while academic students can study either college preparatory or general English.

Juniors and seniors who want additional English courses have a choice of English Composition, Speech, or Journalism. These courses prepare students for college or careers in public speaking or journalism. Shaler's students in both the junior and senior schools receive a fine background in English composition and literature.

The mathematics teachers at Shaler are Mr. Malberg, Mr. Davison, Miss Balkunowa, Mr. J. J. Mr. Mills, Mr. Auld, Mr. Yank.

MATHEMATICS

Shaler High School offers a broader mathematics education than most schools. Continuing to develop the fundamental knowledge of mathematics obtained in elementary school, the math course also introduces decimals to the seventh grade students. These students take a placement test which determines whether or not the student is able to take algebra I in eighth grade. Those who do not place well on the test take another year of general mathematics. Ninth grade students have their choice of either algebra I or general math.

Academic students in the senior high are offered plane geometry, algebra III, trigonometry, and solid geometry. Commercial and general students take business math, general business training, and bookkeeping I and II. Seniors may elect to take pre-college math, which gives the student a good preparation for first year college courses. Eleventh and twelfth grade students in all curricula may elect senior math which is a review of general math and basic algebraic principles.

Alex, Ken, Marilyn, and Fred try to work a math problem as the class looks on.

MUSIC

Music is an extracurricular activity here at Shaler. Junior high students study music for three years under the direction of Mr. Miller. They learn about the various instruments which comprise an orchestra, and they study the lives of many famous composers. These students learn to read music and to harmonize together, many of them planning to continue music as a member of the Sophomore and Chapel Choirs.

Students in the seventh and eighth grades interested in joining the Varsity Marching Band in later years study under the direction of Mr. Myers. They learn to play their instruments well so that they will be a valuable addition to the band when they are in senior high school.

Swing Band is composed of members from the Varsity Marching Band. This year the Swing Band has had a very active year. Performances at the Winter Carnival and at various school dances and assemblies made the Swing Band very popular with the student body. This organization is a fine addition to the music department at Shaler High School.

George Riffner appoints Eileen Heller to head up a committee while other band officers look on.

SOCIAL STUDIES

The social studies curriculum is designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the world around them. It covers a wide range of topics, including history, geography, and civics.

Every student in the junior and senior high school is required to take a social studies course each year. Shaler's seventh and eighth grade students study both Pennsylvania history and geography. Pennsylvania history is the course of study in ninth grade. This teaches the students a little about the state in which they live. Tenth grade students have a choice between world history and American history. The seniors are required to study the History of Democracy. This course stresses the importance of freedom and the problems the United States has faced in the past.

HOME ECONOMICS

Home economics is a required subject for all girls in seventh, eighth, and ninth grades for two periods each week. The tenth, eleventh, and twelfth graders may choose home economics as an elective and they learn more about the art of cooking and sewing. Girls are taught the fundamental courses in homemaking which will help make them better family members in their present homes and also help them to plan ahead for their future homes in order to aid them in becoming future homemakers of America. The home economics course includes every aspect of sewing, food preparation, shopping, nutrition, interior decoration, family relationship, child care, and grooming. This year the girls participated in a fashion contest held for the Braun School's PTA; Becky Owens, Cam Rizza, Betty Brown, Carol Heinz, Fileen Alockney received a necklace or bracelet as an award.

Latin Lives Today

MODERN LANGUAGES

by C. [unclear] and Jean Brown

Because Shaler understands and realizes how important the mastery of several languages is to successful living in this age of jet travel, the school provides an opportunity for students to become adept in two or more languages. Two years of Latin are offered and are elected by most academic students as a basis for further language study in the area of modern languages. In this field, the students can choose from French, Spanish, and German. In all three, the program offers three year courses to provide mastery of the language, both written and oral, and to permit the students to acquire fluency in its use. The language teachers feel that to learn a language completely, the student should become acquainted with the culture, songs, dress and customs of the respective countries in addition to mastering the language. Therefore, the foreign language courses are filled with interesting experiences.

Shaler High School's industrial arts program offers a variety of shop courses to boys from seventh to twelfth grades. Boys in seventh, eighth and ninth grades are taught the fundamental principles of wood and metal shop and also how to use elementary tools. Senior high boys in metal shop learn how to run the machines involved in metal work. They also learn how to use the various types of metals.

Wood shop for tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade boys concerns wood working in which they use their imagination to create projects that will be useful to them. Included in these projects are small boats, book and gun cases, and simple pieces of furniture. This year some of the boys have made red wood lawn furniture; end, lamp, and coffee tables; and hi-fi cabinets.

Boys in mechanical drawing classes acquire skill in planning and designing an object before it is manufactured.

Claud, Tom, and Ernie are putting rivets in the tool boxes they made.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Shaler's shop teachers are Mr. Campbell, shop, Mr. Chalfant, senior wood shop, and Mr. Segina, wood shop.

COMMERCIAL

Shaler High School has a very extensive commercial department. Students desiring to enter the business world will receive an adequate background in commercial education. Academic or general students also may take advantage of some of the commercial subjects, such as typing and shorthand. All commercial students must study either two years of bookkeeping or stenography to receive a commercial diploma. A two year course in typing is also available, as well as interesting courses in office machines and office practice.

All of the phases of skill and accuracy are covered in preparation for the modern business world of today. The guidance that has been offered in commercial subjects is on a level with that of a business training school. When commercial students graduate from Shaler, they are well prepared to enter any phase of the business world.

SCIENCE

The science department of Shaler has organized its teachings so that the students will receive the latest information on this scientific world. This year the seventh and eighth grade students have science for one semester. General science, usually taken in ninth grade, is a general background in all types of science. With this as background, sophomores begin concentration in a more specific phase of science. They find available either bio-ag, a general and practical applied biology, or academic biology, a more technical course for those preparing for college. Seniors, particularly those interested in medicine or nursing, may continue their study in this field by taking advanced biology.

The general and non-academic science is senior science, a combination of chemistry and physics, excluding the math. College-minded students interested in continuing in the study of science are offered two academic sciences, chemistry and physics. These courses include one lab period a week in chemistry and two in physics for conducting the experiments which illustrate the principles learned in class lectures. With the increased emphasis on science and math all students, not just those preparing for engineering careers, are finding chemistry and physics valuable courses in themselves and not merely as preparation for college courses. Shaler thus offers a variety of science courses wide enough to meet students' interests and needs.

ART

Art instruction is required of all students in the seventh and eighth grades. The main purpose of this preliminary course is to prepare for advanced work. Here the students learn how to improve their drawing by doing three dimensional paintings. Also, they experiment with different medias in painting with ink, charcoal, pencil, crayon, and . . . . This gives the students background.

The ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth graders are given an opportunity to choose art as an elective. In these advanced courses they learn how to make jewelry, work with different crafts, paint, and learn more about graphic design.

This year the art department students entered many contests. Linda Penfer won an award because of her ability to design magazine cover. Jane Bartnicki won a dictionary for designing a newspaper heading. Susan Skinner and Jack Hermann were both winners in the Scholastic Art Contest.

Something new was added this year when the Art Club was formed for all senior high students interested in furthering their art knowledge. The club provides a chance to any student who is good enough to qualify to receive free lessons at Carnegie Tech in the Saturday morning classes which are held from September through May.

Art class provides opportunity for students to paint out-doors.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Shaler's physical education program includes two courses, gym and health. Health is taught to give the students a complete picture of the human body and how it functions. Some classes are instructed in first aid so they can be prepared in case of an emergency.

The gym teachers try to provide a widely varied activity program for their students. Mrs. Barr and Miss Ruparcich assume the responsibility of teaching the girls such sports as soccer, field hockey, basketball, volley ball, and softball. Mr. Seibert and Mr. Martin teach the boys exercises and drills that are important to their physical well-being. The boys participate in football, softball, basketball, volley ball, and wrestling. While playing in these activities, students are taught good sportsmanship and leadership.

SERVICES

Quite a few Shaler students would not recognize their school if one or several of its services were curtailed. From the time the bus drivers deliver us to the door each morning until they call for us each afternoon, we have been dependent on many specialized people. Our librarians, Miss Emrick and her assistant Miss Exley, the cafeteria women under Mrs. Speicher's direction, the counselors, the nurse, the office secretaries, the janitors—all make Shaler a pleasant place in which to spend our school days.

Mr. Speicher, Mr. Crawford and Mr. Auld are among the people who make Shaler a pleasant place in which to spend our school days. They are available for consultation and advice.

G. RAYMOND BELL

1908-1959

We were all saddened to hear of the passing of Mr. Bell on March 5. And yet, paradoxically, we felt a queer sort of relief, for we knew of his suffering and pain for over a year with an incurable disease. Mr. Bell was associated with the music department of Shaler High School and the surrounding grade schools for over twenty years. He organized Chapel Choir long ago and kept it at its high quality through his tireless effort and understanding.

He was well known outside of school for his great musical talent. However, he wasn't limited to music, for he had many other interests. He was a very wonderful, pleasant person to be associated with.

None of the students knew of his suffering last year because through it all he kept smiling and remained his normal pleasant self. He never lost faith or courage. We became aware of it only when he entered the hospital last June.

Mr. Bell will always be remembered by all Shaler students for his fine OF IN MUSIC

We all have memories of him from the time when we were in grade school. He came around once a week to lead us in singing. We all remember him singing in a funny-sounding falsetto when he resorted to demonstrating a song.

We were stricken with awe when he came around at Christmastime with his Chapel Choir to sing Christmas carols to us.

However, now that we are in high school the Chapel Choir seems rather routine. But now that Mr. Bell has gone, we realize that to him it wasn't routine; it was an achievement.

Bat
a girl who
I have known for a long time and who I have gone many places with.
Remember all the places we went in the last few years.
We went to G.P.P., the carnival in Etna Juniata College for a week end and many other places. We had a lot of fun at the Friday and Saturday nights you come down and how is remember all the places we went fell asleep on you. I hope you will and I hope you will be mad.
I know you will be mad.
of friends to be said enough so I'll close for now. I guess I said enough so I'll close I know our friendship will always continue
